

Emmbi Polyarns Executive Director wins Women Leaders In India 2011 Award

Dec 14, 2011

by NR INDRAN / INT

Ms. Rinku Appalwar – Executive Director of Emmbi Polyarns Limited received the prestigious award for “Leading Women in Manufacturing” Category in the Women Leaders in India 2011 Award ceremony, for the second year in row. The award was initiated by Global Business Information (P) Ltd and was presented by Ms. Namrata Sharma, Co-Founder & CEO, Kryon Pictures.

Emmbi Polyarns Limited is one of the well established brands in the field of woven polyethylene and polypropylene product having a 17 years track record of business in the field of Flexible Intermediate Bulk Container (FIBC), Bulk Container liners, Canal Liners, Protective Irrigation Systems, Flexible Water Tanks, Car Covers and Geotextile which find large scale application in the segments like Cement, Bulk Chemicals, Agriculture, Water Conservation and infrastructure. Emmbi Polyarns is one of the pioneer in the production of Flexible water tanks & Woven Geo-textile in India.

Emmbi has managed to spread its customer base in about 30 countries in five continents. It is ranked in the top three exporters in the products based on woven textile. In the last 5 years Emmbi has contacted clients and joint venture companies globally in over a dozen industries in the fields such as; Construction, Agriculture, Consumer packaged goods, Hazardous Waste Disposal and Manufacturing to develop the international market for new products designed & produced by Emmbi in India.
