

Emmbi Polyarns wins FEDEX Champion award

Emmbi Polyarns, a Mumbai based company with a global presence in geotextiles and speciality polymers, was declared the Champion in the Rs.20 cr to Rs.200 cr category and was presented the prestigious Business League Award. Emmbi Polyarns was chosen from among 30,400 exporting companies from South Asian countries like India, Sri Lanka, UAE, Kuwait, etc. Receiving the award at a ceremony in Guangzhou, China, Ashesh Garg, CEO, Emmbi Polyarns, said, "It is an honour to be declared a champion in such a highly competitive field. This win underlines our adherence to high standards of global product deliveries. Our export experience has helped us increase our level of quality. We will continue to make India proud in the future as well." Seen in the photo is Ashesh Garg, CEO - Emmbi Polyarns receiving the award at the hands of David Canvan - V.P. Operations and Integration Fed Ex.