

The Summit was graced by the presence of prominent business leaders from India and other countries as well as distinguished members of the academic and intellectual world.

Emmbi Polyarns Limited one of the well established players in the field of woven polyethylene and polypropylene product manufacturing industry, bagged the SME Excellence Award at INDIA SME LEADERSHIP SUMMIT.

INDIA SME LEADERSHIP SUMMIT which took place on August 26, 2011 at Hotel Hyatt Regency, Mumbai was organized by SME Chamber Of India & was supported by the Government Of India.

The Summit was graced by the presence of prominent business leaders from India and other countries as well as distinguished members of the academic and intellectual world. Eminent speakers from various industries, banks, financial institutions, government departments, trade promotion organisations and management leaders, policy and decision makers, experts, consultants and other professionals were invited to share their thoughts to create leadership qualities amongst SMEs and Young Entrepreneurs to compete in global market.

The dignitaries present at the Summit were Virbhadra Singh – Hon. Union Minister for Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises; Dr. Subhir Gokarn – Deputy Governor, RBI; Dr. Sam Pitroda – Advisor to PM, Public Information, Infrastructure & Innovation, India; M. Narendra – CMD, Indian Overseas Bank; K. V. Srinivasan – CEO, Reliance Consumer Finance Pvt. Ltd; Pankaj Baliga – VP, Tata Consultancy Services; M. V. Tanksale – CMD, Central Bank Of India; Madhu Kannan – MD & CEO, BSE and Dr. Lalit Kanodia – CMD, Datamatics Global Services Ltd.

The Managing Director, Makrand Appalwar, Emmbi Polyarns Ltd. after bagging the award said, “The award is an acknowledgement of our endeavour to excel in this industry which is still at a nascent stage in India. It not only indicates that our efforts are well directed, but is also a strong motivator for us to pursue our goal to be pioneers in this sector.